

SNAPSHOTS AT NATIONAL GUARDSMEN'S WAR GAME

Now that the National Guardsmen are back from their annual encampment, and have had time to get used to the luxuries of civil life, after the strenuous hikes, bivouacs and battles that marked the last two days in the field, officers and men alike have set the seal of approval on the 1912 experiment at real soldiering.

It is generally agreed that the encampment which ended last Monday, and which kept the citizen-soldiers under canvas for five days on the picturesque slopes of Moanalua, was the most successful ever held by the Hawaiian militia, and that more work of actual value to the organization was accomplished than ever before during a similar period of instruction.

One of the features of the field work just completed was that in spite of the very limited time spent at Camp Damon, the militiamen were drilled from the ground up in systematic sequence, so that when the maneuver problem of the last few days was entered into, the soldiers had had actual experience in the situations that cropped up.

Had the regular troops been able to take part in the maneuver, this part of the work would have been more successful, as it would have at-

PRISONER INHERITS FORTUNE OF $250,000

Sent Savings of Years to Aunt, Will Rewards Him

WASHINGTON, Pa., Aug. 10.—When Anton Kardos, an Austrian insurance agent, sent all his savings of years to an aunt in Austria-Hungary, who had reared him since the death of his parents in infancy, to tide her over financial difficulties four years ago, he acted without hope of reward.

He received his recompense today when a letter from the village of Zoromezzo, in Austria, informed him that the aunt, Mrs. Susanna Kardos, had recently died and left him her entire fortune, estimated to be a quarter of a million dollars.

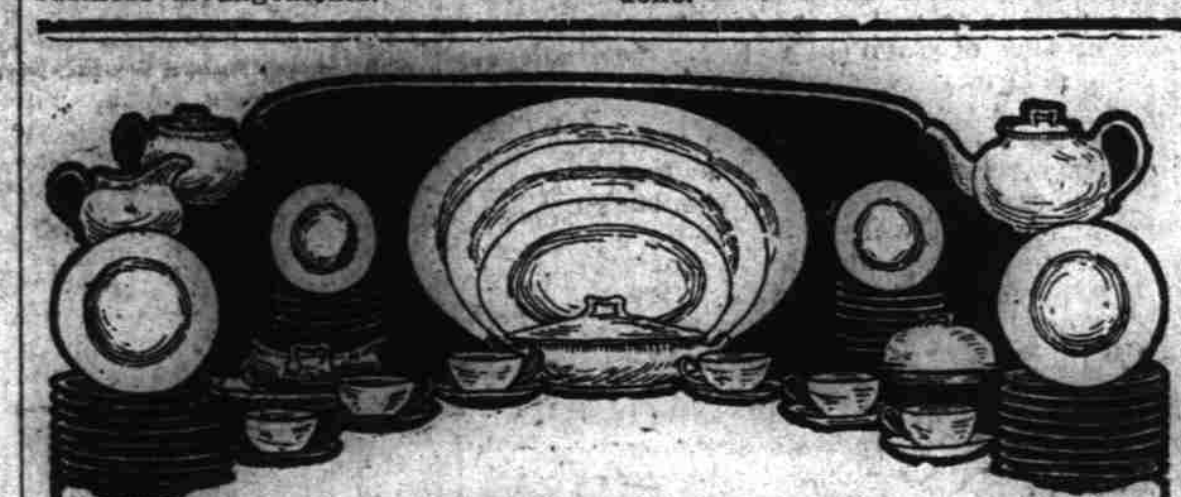

Kardos's good fortune comes at a period of low ebb in his career, as he is now serving a sentence of three months in jail on a charge of embezzling insurance society funds.

lowed the entire militia regiment to operate as a unit, but even under the circumstances, the problem taught the lessons intended.

It is expected that a serious effort will be made to have next year's period of field instruction last for at least ten days. Both officers and men would have gladly spent twice the time in camp, had it been possible for them to make the necessary business arrangements.

Chicago and Canadian capitalists will shortly establish a steamship line between Los Angeles and the east coast in anticipation of the canal opening.

Floods still menace many English towns, particularly Norwich, where where great damage has already been done.

ACTRESS THROWS POSY TO CANDIDATE WILSON

Discovered, Presidential Nominee Is Nearly Mobbed by Enthusiasts in Theater

NEW YORK, August 17.—Governor Woodrow Wilson late last night became the center of a veritable maelstrom of enthusiasts who tried to shake his hand as he was leaving the theatre.

The show which the Governor attended was a comedy of Scottish life and few of those in the house knew he was there. As the curtain fell at the close of the play, however, it was quickly raised again and the leading lady appeared at the footlights with a bouquet which she tossed to Mr. Wilson, who sat near by.

"A bouquet of flowers from a bonnie wee lassie to the next President of the United States."

The Governor got up and bowed and as the crowd recognized him, a demonstration followed. Soon a cheering crowd surged about him. The Governor escaped for a moment by accepting an invitation to visit behind the scenes.
